I understand that this form will be used to roommate match me with other prospective residents. I give L3 Campus the right to place me with roommates. L3 Campus also has the right to share my contact info and preferences with other prospective roommates who may contact me directly. L3 Campus is not responsible if any roommates that give inaccurate info on their matching forms. Roommates will make every effort to treat each other and the living space respectfully and to resolve any conflicts internally, unless there is serious issue that requires Management's assistance. All responsibilities, charges, and common area damages will be divided equally between all roommates. By signing this, I am stating that the above information is true and correct.
